ARTICLE X Remedies

1. City Remedies. In the event of a Company Default that has continued uncured beyond any applicable grace or cure period, if applicable, the City shall have no obligation to pay the Incentive Payment to the Company and the City shall have the right as its sole remedies to: (a) if already paid, recapture the Incentive Payments paid by the City to the Company as more fully set forth herein; and (b) terminate this Agreement by written notice to the Company in which event neither Party hereto shall have any further rights or obligations hereunder except for those that expressly survive the termination of this Agreement. Except as provided herein, in no event will the City be entitled to the recovery of attorneys' fees (except in the event of the exercise by the City of the remedies set forth in Chapter 2264 of the Texas Government Code or except in the event Company asserts a claim for attorneys' fees against City) or consequential, punitive, exemplary or speculative damages. In the event of an uncured Company Default and should the City have already paid an Incentive Payment to Company, the Company shall pay to the City, within thirty (30) days of written notice from the City, at the City's address set forth in this Agreement, the total amount of the then most recent Incentive Payment paid by City to Company plus interest at the rate equal to the lesser of: (i) the Maximum Lawful Rate; or (ii) six percent

The recovery of damages against the City shall not include attorney's fees, court costs, or consequential, punitive, exemplary, or speculative damages including, but not limited to, lost profits. The City and Company acknowledge and agree that this Agreement is not a contract for goods or services and the City's immunity from suit is not waived pursuant to Subchapter I of Chapter 271, V.T.C.A., Local Government Code, as amended. Alternatively, if and only in the event a court of competent jurisdiction determines the City's immunity from suit is waived under Subchapter I of Chapter 271, V.T.C.A., Local Government Code, the Parties hereby acknowledge and agree that in a suit against the City for breach of this Agreement or otherwise to recover damages:
